MAN AND WIFE IN DEATH DUEL

WOMAN OPENS FIRE FIRST AND HUSBAND QUICKLY RETURNS IT.

THE WOMAN IS DEAD

By Sun Leased Wire.
Chicago, Aug. 9.—In an alleged duel to the death with revolvers today, Mrs. Philip Stinson was killed and her husband fatally wounded.

The woman's body and the dying man were rushed to the People's hospital in the same ambulance. The police obtained an incomplete report of the tragedy, but from statements secured from neighbors it was declared that the story of a duel had been substantiated. Two revolvers were found on the floor both having been discharged.

The man was shot twice through the head with bullets of large calibre. The woman's body had been pierced with bullets that seemed of lighter calibre.

According to the best information it was stated that the woman fired the first shot and that several shots were exchanged immediately afterwards.

THREE DROWN

DOCTOR AND TWO OF HIS FRIENDS GO DOWN TO WATERY GRAVE.

CAUGHT IN WHIRLPOOL

By Sun Leased Wire.
Baltimore, Aug. 9.—While bathing off Duke's wharf, in the Patuxent river today, Dr. Howard Eastman, George H. Coombs and Frank Schultz of this city were drawn into a whirlpool and drowned. None knew there was a whirlpool in the vicinity.

The three young men were enjoying a bath when Coombs was drawn into the pool. He spun around and sank. Schultz struck out to the rescue. By that time the doctor, too, was caught by the whirling water. It was Schultz's intention, it is thought, to save both men.

After several hours of search the bodies of two of the men were found together. Schultz was engaged to be married to a sister of Coombs.

PIE FOR KNOX

PRESIDENT TO LET HIM FORM BUREAU OF FAR EASTERN AFFAIRS

TAKT TO TAKE REST

By Sun Leased Wire.
Beverly, Mass., Aug. 9.—Following close upon the report yesterday that he has turned over the preliminary selection of maximum and minimum tariff experts to Secretary MacVeagh, the fact became known today that Mr. Taft is going to leave the formation of the bureau of far eastern affairs to Secretary Knox.

It was for the organization of this bureau, with its functions of promotion of commerce and smoothing down the feelings of eastern diplomats that congress recently appropriated $100,000.

The president will not take any immediate personal interest in getting this bureau started, it is said, inasmuch as Secretary Knox is empowered to go ahead with the arrangements himself.

MAN, AGED 107, HAS THE WANDERLUST

Hankers for Sea Voyages and Longs to See Old Places.
New York, Aug. 9.—Alexander Herriott, the 107-year-old citizen of Yonkers, who spent all his youth at sea from the time he ran away from his second home in Scotland to ship as a little boy before the mast, is bent again on taking to the sea, at least for long enough to reach the place of his childhood.

It is almost 100 years now since he shipped as cabin boy on a big square-rigger. Those were the days of stern chases, when sails belled and ships luffed and came about, and did a lot of other interesting things they do no longer, and Herriott stayed before the mast till he was 35, had many a brush with French cruisers and once caught a glimpse of Napoleon on St. Helena.

And now, though for 60 years he has lived quietly enough hereabouts, the craving for his old wild life has come back to him.

A CONSPIRACY IS NOW CHARGED

MRS. SUTTON SAYS OFFICERS WERE BENT ON "LICKING" SON.

TELLS HER OWN STORY

By Sun Leased Wire.
Annapolis, Md., Aug. 9.—Mrs. Rosa B. Sutton, who worked for more than a year to bring about a second inquiry into the death of her son, Lieutenant James N. Sutton, Jr., took the stand here today and declared emphatically that she was convinced that her son had not killed himself but had died as the result of a conspiracy among his brother officers, "to give him a good beating the first chance they got."

She reiterated her opinion, expressed in her letters, that Lieutenants Utley, Adams and Osterman had "framed up" the fight with her son, called them "curs" and "wild beasts," told of her son's appearing to her in a dream after he was dead and laying the blame for his death upon Adams.

She considered the evidence before the first court of inquiry as sufficient to bring her to the conclusion that her son was murdered. She also declared that her son's effects had been tampered with by Captain Marx and Lieutenant Utley.

At the conclusion of Mrs. Sutton's examination, Mr. Davis gave the names of two witnesses he wished subpoenaed and mentioned another, whose name, he said, he would mention to the court privately.

The two names that were made public were Corporal Todd and Charles H. Russell. Todd was corporal of the guard the night Sutton died and it was to him that Osterman and Utley applied for revolvers after Sutton, according to the testimony, had threatened to kill them before morning. Todd is now at the Boston navy yard.
